NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Ready or not, we are going to have open house in our new location this Saturday and we invite everyone to come by to look around, have a cup of coffee and a tour of the plant, if you have time. While there are still some things that we need to finish in the shop we are about as ready for company as we are ever going to be.

Not only are we marking the occasion of moving into our own building but we are also marking our tenth anniversary in Hamlin.

We took over the operation of the Hamlin Herald on April 1, 1960, and are quite proud of our ten years here. Hamlin has been good to us both as a newspaper and a business, but also as a family.

We have made a great many changes in both our printing and office supply business as well as our newspaper during these ten years, and we hope that we are performing a service that the people of Hamlin can be proud of.

While we hear a number of people singing the blues about Hamlin and other small towns because of the lack of industry moving in, we can look around us and see a number of changes that have been made during the past ten years that indicate that, to us at least, Hamlin is far from dead.

While there have been no major industries moving in, there have been a lot of smaller operations that have started during these past ten years. While they seem to go unnoticed, they have added a great deal to our economy.

Nearly all of the oil field construction firms and suppliers that are here now were not in existence ten years ago; we have two CPA's here now where we had none 10 years ago. A large number of truckers operate out of here now due to Celotex that were either smaller or non-existent ten years ago. Also, there are a number of agri-businesses firms in operation now.

We have a new school, a nursing home and new church buildings that have been built during the past ten years. On top of this, we have had a large number of businesses that have changed hands and expanded their operations during this time. Remodeling of many existing businesses has taken place also.

So that while we agree that it would be nice to have industry come to town, and want to help in anyway possible to get them, we are proud of Hamlin and feel that it has progressed more than most people realize.

We know that we are glad that we moved here ten years ago and feel that we have made every effort to progress with the town.

So, if you have time Saturday, please drop by and visit with us. This will probably be the last time the place will ever be clean enough to show off, so you need to come Saturday.

Since Dr. J. T. Appleton is going to present a program here Friday on drug abuse we thought we would pass along the following information as to what happens when you are convicted of a felony, which is what possession of a drug is.

You lose the right to vote, the right to run for a public office, the opportunity of ever being a licensed doctor, dentist, CPA, engineer, lawyer, architect, realtor, osteopath, physical therapist, pharmacist, school teacher, barber, masseur, or stock broker.

You can never get a job where you have to be bonded or licensed.

You cannot work for the city, county or federal government and while you can enlist in the military service you do not have a choice of service and will possibly be assigned to a labor battalion.

So you can see that when you go to dope to get your kicks you can get a bigger "kick" than you expect.

There will be a lot of class singing and several special groups, he said, including the Brown Quartet of Ft. Worth and Santa Anna Trio and numerous others from surrounding towns.

Texas Central Takes Over Katy Operation Here

Operation of the Katy Railroad from Stamford to Rotan was taken over Wednesday, Apr. 1, by Texas Central Enterprises who operate another section of what used to be the Katy between Gorman and Dublin.

Cars handled by Texas Central will be given to the Santa Fe here in Hamlin and to the Burlington at Stamford.

The line will operate out of Stamford with plans calling for the old Katy Depot to be remodeled to form an office for the company, according to Ed Stafford, president.

Officials of the company plan to launch a strong industrial campaign to interest firms in locating on the railroad sidings.

This marks the end of a long period in which the Katy has been associated with this area. The line was originally built into this area from Waco in 1900. Later the Katy took over its operation.

Most of the old Katy track has been taken up with the exception of the two segments now being operated by Texas Central Enterprises.

Station agent will be Kenneth Neal, formerly with Austin Bridge Co. in Dallas.

C. E. Painter, a Katy employee for nearly 30 years, has been transferred to Granger and will be moving to Taylor Monday. He has been in Hamlin for the past 11 years and was previously here for two years.

The Soft-Edged Look Of Spring Suits

Spring suits and ensembles follow the new fashion direction to elegant and ladylike designs.

Dress and jacket costumes as well as two-piece suits are gently shaped and soft-edged. Soft of skirt and long of jacket.

et, they're most often interpreted in lightweight woven cottons.

MOOD OF SPRING — Apple green cotton, dotted and banded in white, is Teal Traina's choice for a soft-edged spring ensemble. The long jacket tops a high-necked dress with sleeveless white bodice and gathered skirt.

THE 30'S REVISITED — Tom Nasarre for Junior Sophisticates borrows from the 30's for this soft suit look of double woven cotton. The bathrobe tie jacket, stretched to the hip, goes over a long-sleeved shirt and skinny A-skirt.

CITY SUITED — Black and white flowers have the look of a pen and ink drawing in this fine-ribbed cotton costume by Danika. The simple body-shaped jacket conceals a slip of a dress with white bodice and printed skirt.

C. M. Shipman Observes 90th Birthday In Abilene

C. M. (Uncle Charlie) Shipman, who came to this area before Hamlin was established as a town, observed his 90th birthday Mar. 22 in the home of his oldest daughter, Mrs. Pearl Thompson in Abilene.

Other children present were daughters Mrs. Adelle Sledge of Graham, Mrs. Bessie Wisdom of Haskell and sons Cleo and Jessie Shipman both of Lubbock. Another son, Elvis of Paint Creek was unable to attend. Others attending the dinner celebration were his wife, Viola, five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Born Mar. 24, 1880, in Erath County, he lived at home until he was 22 years of age. His father settled there in 1861 in a community of Duffo, about eight miles north of Hico.

He married in 1901 to Mattie Collier. They moved to ones County in 1903 and lived at Funston a year before moving to the T Diamond Ranch three miles north of Hamlin. They had to go to Stamford to shop before Hamlin came into being. They had four sons and three daughters.

He said the country was thinly settled and the first man with whom he became acquainted was Uncle George Barnett who lived West of Hamlin.

He cut and hauled wood off of the Uncle Jerry Waggoner homestead.

In 1906 he saw the first train, the Orient, come into Hamlin.

Feb. 17, 1945 he was married to the former Viola Rumfield. They were owners of a laundry for a time. He has been a farmer and was an employee of the Highway Department for 11 years.

While growing up, Shipman remembers, his family harvested their wheat with a cradle and tied it in bundles with wheat straw. When it dried they laid it on a sheet and beat it out with a paddle. It was later taken to a water operated mill near Glen Rose to be ground. His mother then sifted the bran out and biscuits were made with the flour.

In those days, he said, the cotton planter was unknown to his family and his father and the children planted the seeds by hand. He said his father dampened the cotton seed and rolled them in ashes. Then the children would drop the seeds into carefully laid rows and cover them with a lizard (a forked tree limb).

They broke their own saddle horses.

The family went to church at Prairie Spring in a wagon over rough country roads. The children went barefoot, he said.

Later, the neighbors banded together and built a church at Duffo. He recalls that he and another boy hauled the lumber from Hico with yoke steers and the older men of the church built the building.

Three Indians joined the church and were regular in attendance. He remembers that the Indian boy led the way, the man followed and the woman walked in the back. Mr. Shipman joined the church at the age of 20.

He went back to Duffo 40 years later and the church was gone and trees stood where the church had been.

He has watched Hamlin grow from the early day townsite dotted with tents and shacks with no conveniences to the modern city of today. He watched the changes as the town progressed with paved streets, electricity, gas and telephones.

Mr. Shipman helped to build the Calvary Baptist Church on South Central and is a member of the congregation in the newer structure in Northwest Hamlin. He also helped to build the Sunset Baptist Church.

R. T. Cyfert and his son, Walter Cyfert, both of Throckmorton were in Hamlin Friday to take care of business and do some visiting.

Connie Jo Duncan Takes Part In H-SU Indiana Revival

Connie Jo Duncan, who is doing graduate work at Texas Christian University, was invited to participate again this year in a week of Easter Revival Services in Indiana by the religious activities director of Hardin-Simmons University, Rev. Marshall Walker.

Miss Duncan and Rev. Walker were two of the initial ones to participate when H-SU sent the first teams of three to work in 15 different churches five years ago.

This is the third Easter she has spent there. This year she was one of a team of four that worked in Madison. She also worked in a church in Greencastle one summer.

Rev. Walker said he did not have a complete report of the results of the 23 teams but it was their best year and they are already making plans for next Easter. Nearly 100 students returned to H-SU at 6 p.m. Monday very tired after a continuous 26-hour bus trip saying "a good and glorious 10 days" and singing the great hymn, "To God Be the Glory."

Miss Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Duncan, is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University.

NATIONAL FHA WEEK APRIL 5-11, 1970

Observing 25 Years of Sterling Opportunity
Through FHA

History of Future Homemakers of America

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the founding of Future Homemakers of America as a national youth organization in vocational education, co-related with the home economics education program.

The signing of the first National Vocational Education Act by President Woodrow Wilson brought into being federally-supported, state-conducted programs of vocational education which included home economics. Through home economics education the foundation was laid for the development of Future Homemakers of America as an integral part of the program.

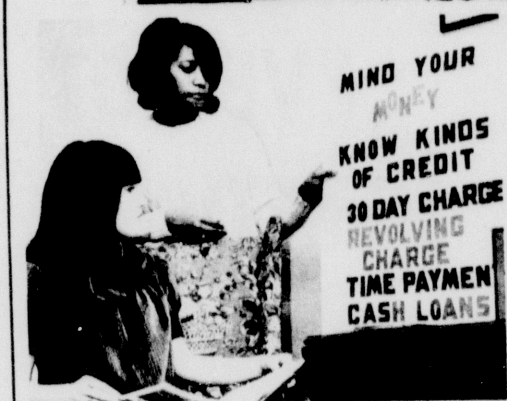

An outgrowth of various state and local high school home economics clubs known by different names, Future Homemakers of America was founded June 11, 1945 as an incorporated, non-profit national organization for home economics students in junior and senior high schools, both public and private.

Members of The American Home Economics Association and the Home Economics Education Staff of the U. S. Office of Education took the lead in forming this national organization to provide an opportunity for all home economics clubs to combine efforts in working together on improved home and family living on a national scale.

Kentucky was the first State Association to affiliate with the national organization. By the end of the first year, membership had almost doubled and national offices had been moved into the U. S. Office of Education.

Future Homemakers of America begin their twenty-fifth year with 604,000 members in 12,000 local high school chapters. The record shows affiliated associations in all 50 States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and The Virgin Islands—and affiliated chapters in American Schools located in Germany, Japan, Iran, and The Canal Zone.

In its twenty-five years of existence Future Homemakers of America has served more than fifteen million high school youth.

Future Homemakers of America are consumer conscious. Learning about convenience foods is important to the homemaker-wage-earner of tomorrow. Lessons learned in the home economics classroom are put to use in FHA chapter projects concerned with comparative buying, budgeting time and money.

Future Homemakers of America learn how to use their money wisely. Working on projects concerning different kinds of credit helps prepare them for their consumer role.

Future Homemakers of America are identified by this octagonal emblem showing a house supported by two hands suggesting that the future homes of America are in the hands of youth. Rays extending to and from the house indicate the influences of the home and the community on each other. The emblem bears the FHA motto TOWARD NEW HORIZONS.

—NATIONAL FHA WEEK—April 5-11, 1970—Theme: 25 Years of Sterling Opportunity.

—1970 is the 25th anniversary of the establishment of Future Homemakers of America as the National Organization for home economics students in junior and senior high schools throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, The Virgin Islands, and some American Schools overseas.

—Future Homemakers of America was founded June 11, 1945 as an incorporated self-supporting, non-profit organization, co-sponsored by the U. S. Office of Education and The American Home Economics Association.

—Membership in FHA is voluntary and is open to any junior or senior high school student who is taking or has taken a home economics course.

—The national organization is made up of the chartered State Associations which are made up of local chapters. State Supervisors of Home Economics Education or members of their staffs serve as FHA State Advisers. High School Home Economics Teachers serve as Advisers to local chapters.

—Future Homemakers of America as an organization is an integral part of the secondary schools' home economics program, providing opportunities for students to have additional experiences in planning and carrying out activities related to the science of homemaking with particular emphasis on the dual role of homemaker and wage-earner.

—The overall goal of Future Homemakers of America is to help individuals improve personal, family and community living. The FHA National Program of Work is designed to work toward that goal.

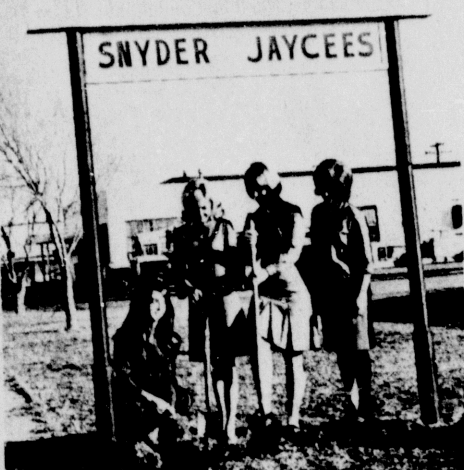

—Twelve national officers (youth) are elected each year at the annual national meeting. They make up the National Executive Council and are responsible for the plans and policies of the organization. An adult National Advisory Board gives guidance to the Executive Council.

—There are 604,000 members of Future Homemakers of America in 12,000 local high school chapters.

—National Headquarters are located in the U. S. Office of Education, Washington, D. C. 20202

HELP THE FHA GIRLS
BEAUTIFY SNYDER

Future Homemakers of America care about their communities. Tons of litter have been picked up and thousands of acres have been beautified by FHA chapters across the country. Cooperating with others to help Keep America Beautiful is a favorite FHA project.

— A SILVER SALUTE — FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

For 25 Years of Pride—Progress—and Purpose

Future Homemakers of America care about good health habits. They also care about children. These health conscious FHA'ers use some of their leisure time to prepare and present a nutrition program to elementary school children.

Family emphasis is an important part of the Future Homemakers of America's program. This male FHA member is interested in The Family Life Cycle being explained by the FHA chapter adviser. Many young men enrolled in family living classes join the Future Homemakers of America organization to expand their classroom learning.

Future Homemakers of America like to use their leisure time constructively by volunteering for service to others. This chapter carried out a successful Bundle Drive, collecting and packaging clothing for the Save the Children Federation.

AUSTIN — New programs are in the works for job training and computerizing data on the industrial advantages offered by Texas communities.

Texas Industrial Commission announced its computer project will go into operation this summer with completion of date storage on cities across the state. Texas Municipal League, Chambers of Commerce and industrial developers are cooperating.

Commission plans to provide prospective industries with instant information on every town in Texas, listing natural and human resources available, economic potential and strong points in each place.

Program also is designed to show communities which industries most likely would be interested in their attractions.

Meanwhile, a three-year project to develop industry's ability to determine what training is needed and where was announced at the Governor's Conference on Technical - Vocational Education here.

Construction Industry Council for Education, Manpower and Research will receive $90,000 from Texas Education Agency to help other industries plan training based on families, occupations or employment. Council will use the system to develop an environmental technology program expected to enroll between 9,000 and 10,000 students in 1972.

Students will get an introduction to the industries in the ninth grade, study plumbing basics in the tenth grade, heating and cooling in the eleventh. In their senior year, they will select jobs for part-time supervised training. After high school, they can go directly to work in a trade or take advanced training in technology or engineering. Industry and education agencies cooperate in offering the training.

AIR BOARD-AG CLASH — Texas Air Control Board has accused the attorney general's office of demanding too much evidence before it will take pollution cases to court.

"You shouldn't have to kill anybody to get prosecution," emphasized Dr. Wendell H. Hamrick, Houston member of the Board. "I don't see how we can ever get any prosecution under conditions set out by the attorney general."

Protest broke open a long-standing conflict between the Board and state lawyers over how much evidence is necessary to support filing of air pollution violations against industries. It was provoked by an Austin furniture plant case, where the Attorney General declined to take action for lack of sufficient evidence.

Attorney General's representative said the Board's stringent regulations present the problem of proving danger to public health and welfare.

COURTS SPEAK — Supreme Court held that witnesses cannot be forced to present certain types of records when they are sought only to challenge their own testimony.

High Court overruled the effort of the City of Orange to direct the Beaumont Court of Civil Appeals to make specific findings in an annexation dispute between Orange and Port Neches.

TODD AWARD WINNER—Robert Pearce, All-America quarterback from Hamlin, is presented the Todd Memorial Award by Dr. Ralph W. Steen, president of Stephen F. Austin State University. Pearce, who has signed a contract with the Minnesota Vikings of the National Football League, guided the Lumberjacks to the most spectacular season in the history of the school last fall when they finished third in the Lone Star Conference behind national champion Texas A&I and East Texas State. SFA also led the nation in total offense with 5017 yards.

After appeal to the State Supreme Court a Houston shipyard welder won his case for workmen's compensation disability insurance on the basis of his claim that he was poisoned by fumes in a job accident.

Fred Williams of Houston, candidate for land commissioner, has asked the Supreme Court to force Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler to make public a list of 43,000 voters who have state veteran land loans.

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin, through the AG's anti-trust and consumer division, got a district court injunction against Empire Sewing Machine Distributors of Fort Worth ordering it to stop deceptive trade practices.

AG RULES — Out-of-state liquor may be used to stock airliners in Texas without paying any state tax unless the alcoholic beverages are sold while the plane is over Texas, says Attorney General Martin.

In another recent opinion, Martin held that the Sunnyvale Town Council, Dallas County, cannot act in the capacity of a school board for Sunnyvale Independent School District.

TB TEST REINSTATED — Tuberculosis tests have been reinstated at all border ports of entry for cattle imported from Mexico, reports the Texas Animal Health Commission.

Action was taken under terms of a Travis County district court order enjoining the commission from permitting entry into Texas of cattle from Mexico in violation of health regulations. Associated Milk Producers of Texas filed the suit.

Early this year the Health Commission put TB testing requirements into effect on the border but suspended them two weeks later at the request of Governor Smith pending a hearing in El Paso on objections to the order. Commission decided to exempt steers and spayed heifers after the hearing. Issue will be aired at an April 6 agency meeting here.

REGISTRATION LEADERS NAMED — Loving and Roberts Counties registered the highest percentage of voters in the small-county category. Loving county scored 258.3 per cent and Roberts county 232.4 per cent. Quotas were fixed by the State Democratic Executive Committee. Throckmorton County came in third in the same class.

Next group, population wise, was led by Rains County, followed closely by Stonewall, Shackelford, Bandera, Zapata, Menard, Dickens, Mills, Coke and Jim Hogg.

SHORT SNORTS National Aeronautics and Space Administration will provide the state data from its aircraft and satellites to deal with pollution problems and natural resource preservation.

An Office of Child Development grant of $96,014 has been approved for Robertson County. Hearne, economic opportunities advancement unit.

No cases of psoroptic scabies were reported in Texas in February, according to the latest report of the State Animal Health Commission, but animal health officials started a complete inspection of feedlots in Castro County, where the state's last outbreak of the disease occurred in December.

Inspection -- Deadline Nears

"With the April 15 motor vehicle inspection deadline two weeks away, only about 50 per cent of the registered vehicles have been inspected," stated Captain Alan Johnson, Motor Vehicle Inspection Supervisor of the Texas Department of Public Safety. "Unless there is a rapid increase of inspections, it appears that many vehicles will not be inspected before the April 15 deadline. Any driver operating a vehicle displaying an inspection sticker on the right-hand side of the windshield after April 15 will be operating in violation of the inspection law," Johnson added.

Johnson noted that this will be the last April 15 inspection deadline, because on September 1, 1969 the Texas Legislature adopted a year-around inspection program. Inspections will come due one year after the current month of inspection. This will establish an anniversary month for each vehicle to be inspected and prevent the logjam of over six million vehicles to be inspected at one time.

The new inspection sticker will be placed on the left-hand side of the windshield. The number of the current month of inspection will appear on the sticker.

Cong. Omar Burleson Issues Statement In Bid for Re-election

Congressman Omar Burleson has formally announced his candidacy for re-election to Congress, subject to the Democratic Primary on May 2 and the General Election in November. The 17th Congressional District, which he represents, is composed of 31 Counties, covering approximately 30,000 square miles. Within this area live about 440,000 people.

Burleson says, "During my tenure of office I have followed two guiding principles: First, to know the views of my constituents and reflect their sentiments to the greatest degree possible in my actions in the Halls of Congress. Second, to inform and advise as closely as I can on those issues which affect our District, our State and our Nation."

Burleson termed his approach to Government as one of "common sense," gained through the years of public service. "I have tried to see that the people's tax money is spent as wisely and as judiciously as you would have spent it had you been in my place," he said.

"The record will show that a greater part of the time I have found myself in the minority in opposing the vast spending programs of doubtful value which have been put into effect in recent years. In every Session of the Congress the record will show my votes for expenditures below that recommended by the Executive Department and far less than actually appropriated by the Congress, except in the field of National Defense," Burleson said. He continued, "Without meaning to appear boastful, if the Congress had followed those of us who have voted consistently over the years for fiscal responsibility, our financial affairs would not be in the shape they are today."

"In areas providing for the defense of our Country, I have always supported those things to make and keep our Nation stronger than any other in the world," he said.

"I have been discerning in separating those activities which the Federal Government was not designed to do, from those which are truly its responsibility," he said.

Burleson stated that activities of State and local governments, in accordance with the Constitution, should not be infringed and encroached upon by the Federal Government.

"The Federal Government does have specific missions," he said. He gave as examples the conservation of our natural resources, the defense of the Country and its general welfare.

"At the same time," he said, "the Federal Government can not and should not try to take care of everything from Washington, either foreign or domestic. The Federal Government has grown to colossal proportions and centralized power in Washington has increased," Burleson pointed out. "To this, I am opposed and my record is clear in this respect."

Burleson is among the senior members of the U. S. House of Representatives in point of service. He was elected to the 80th Congress from the 17th District and has been re-elected to each succeeding Congress. He is a member of the Ways and Means Committee, considered to be the most powerful and prestigious in the House.

Burleson is a former County Attorney and County Judge of Jones County. He was appointed an FBI Agent, and served in a number of assignments over the U. S. He resigned from the FBI to join the Navy in World War II, and saw duty in both the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Burleson ended his formal announcement by saying, "Although not having opposition in this year's election, it is Cold damp weather prevailed here over the Easter weekend, dampening the spirits of adult Easter picknickers and shortening the joys of Easter egg hunts for the little folks. The annual picnic and Easter egg hunt at the Herman Dugan place was called off on account of the weather. Those who gather at the Cooter Boles place for this annual affair enjoyed a picnic lunch in the fellowship room of Sweet Home Baptist Church in Rule and the afternoon was warm enough for the children to have their Easter egg hunt outside.

The Old Glory Junior-Senior Banquet was held last Friday night at the Cliff House at Stamford. Mr. V. R. Leverett, Superintendent of Wylie High School was the speaker for the evening. Mrs. Leverett was also a guest at the banquet. The affair followed a western theme.

Mrs. Garrett Spitzer was the hostess for the Variety Club meeting at her home Tuesday of last week. Eight members present were Meses. E. H. Diers, Charlie Letz, Bill Wright, Lynn Flowers, W. G. Wienke, Travis Bell, Beno Herttenberger and the hostess. Mrs. Spitzer will also host a called meeting in her home April 6 when the ladies are planning to quilt for Mrs. Agnew.

The Congress being in session at this time and expected to be long after the Primary Election, there will be little time to leave duties in Washington. I expect, however, to get back home at short intervals to do the best I can in seeing my friends and to make new ones. I believe it is incumbent upon a Congressman to know people and that they know him, to have the best representation. This is fundamental to our system."

(April 3, 1925)

The power of a Buick is not yet known. This was demonstrated last Sunday afternoon when the small children of Mr. McBride, the gin man, in Southwest Hamlin, experimented with their car standing in front of their home. It seems the little fellows opened up the gas, set the gears in intermediate and stepped on the starter. At least the car started off with a boom, pitched around and across ditches, dumped the kids out, never hurt a single one, then tore away down through the mesquite trees, taking limbs and wire fences and post along as it went. It reached the open street running north of the ball park, got a new "breath" and dived right into the high fence, taking plank, posts, soda pop stand, easy as you please, took a jump into the players dugout and began a victorious, but subdued gait across the park in the direction of the "famous" croquet grounds, and Sunday afternoon players. It was a time to come to the "aid of your country." There the thing came, half covered with brush, plank and wire, the top was gone, the tires were punctured, but the old engine was pulling away with a determination to set a record for speed. There is always a right man in the right place. John Henry Wood was the hero. He made a dash for the car and soon had the liquid power shut off and all danger was over. So much for a Buick.

Monday night fire completely destroyed the Odd Fellows Hall at Neinda. This is the second fire for that community since Christmas. Not many weeks ago, their public school building was destroyed and since that time the school has been using the lower story of the Odd Fellow Hall.

As to what was probably the cause of the Monday night fire, no one seems able to say. This building was but about two years old and was a very substantial structure. Information is that the school will likely not resume as the term lacks but about three weeks being out.

Neinda is one of the best sections of Jones County and notwithstanding the recent disaster, we may rest assured that a good school building and also another good lodge hall will be built in the near future.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(March 31, 1950)

Rotarians and Lions met jointly Thursday in Hamlin at the city park to hear Charles Rawls, senior national vice commander of the VFW. Estimated attendance was 150 club members and guests at the gathering.

Rawls was introduced by Julian Dixon, Abilene, state department commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Subject of Rawls message was efforts now being pushed to further organization of World Government throughout the universe and particularly in the United States.

Rawls denounced the movement for World Government as a deliberate effort to undermine the strength of the United States as the leading world power and reduce the nation to its suggested role with reference to its population. Under this suggestion the country would possess only seven per cent of the voting strength.

TEN YEARS AGO
(March 31, 1960)

Sale of The Hamlin Herald to Roy Craig, publisher of The Stamford American, and son, Bob Craig, was consummated Wednesday and announced by Willard Jones, since 1946 publisher of the newspaper.

Sale of the Herald closes a newspaper career for Jones that began in 1917 when he began work as a printer's devil on The Wise County Messenger at Decatur. He became half owner of The Wise County Messenger in 1924. Selling that interest in 1927, he went to The Lufkin Daily News in 1927. Then in 1929 he and a double cousin, Jake Smyth (now of The Liberty Vindicator) bought The Snyder News. In 1931 they consolidated with The Scurry County Times of Snyder. Jones purchased Smyth's interest in 1940 to become sole owner. He sold the Snyder paper in 1950 after making it a semi-weekly two years previously, and announcing plans for publishing a daily. He sold to the Harte-Hanks interests of San Angelo and Abilene.

In 1946 Jones and his brother-in-law, H. G. Lackey, purchased The Herald, The Haskell Free Press and The Texas Spur at Spur. June Jones, son of the present publisher and wife, operated The Herald until 1957, when the son moved to Abilene to establish a commercial printing business.

Bob Craig, who has been associated with his father at Stamford for several years, and wife are moving to Hamlin soon to assume operation of The Herald.

READY FOR New CARGO

This ship has been emptied of its cargo, and now stands ready to take on fuel and more cargo for further service. If this ship were to remain empty, it would be of no value and would be failing in the one thing that it was built for.

Man was created to be a companion to God, and when he does not join in worship with God, he is failing in the reason for his creation. Make your life mean something for God . . .

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Santa Fe Shows Increase In Net Earnings for Year

Consolidated net income of $60.8 million or $2.43 per share for 1969, compared with $45.4 million or $1.81 per share in 1968, was announced in the second annual report of Santa Fe Industries, Inc.

The 34 per cent increase in net was achieved on a 7 per cent gain in revenues from $756.9 million to $812.5 million, Ernest S. Marsh, chairman and chief executive officer, and John S. Reed, president, stated in the message to stockholders.

Net earnings of subsidiaries other than Railway contributed approximately 40 per cent to Industries net income. Transportation operating revenues of $749.6 million were 7 per cent higher than 1968, and transportation operating income of $69.4 million was 38 per cent above the previous year. This favorable result was achieved in large measure through strenuous cost control efforts coupled with much needed tariff increases, the two executives reported.

Oil, lumber and other non-transportation revenues increased 12 per cent to $62.9 million, while operating income from these sources increased 19 per cent to $28.1 million.

It was also announced that the annual meeting of stockholders will be held at 10:00 a.m. May 26, 1970, at the Prudential Building auditorium in Chicago.

DOYLE BRINEGAR

Doyle Brinegar, HHS Grad, Gives Paper At Clinic

Doyle Brinegar, a 1954 graduate of Hamlin High School and product engineer for Drilco of Midland, presented a paper in the Monahans High School Auditorium Thursday for the Third Biennial Deep Drilling and Production Symposium-Delaware Basin.

He and Sam Crews of Houston discussed the use of large drill collars successfully.

Brinegar joined Drilco in December, 1960, as an inspector, moving into sales the following year. In 1962, he went to Denver as a Field Engineer, then was transferred to Houston in 1964. In 1967, he was promoted to Product Engineer and transferred to the home plant.

A 1959 graduate of Texas A&M, Brinegar earned a degree in Petroleum Engineering. He has done trouble shooting for Drilco in Peru, Bolivia, Iran, Mexico and on the North Slope, Alaska. He lives at 3331 Camarie in Midland with his wife, Patsy, and three children, Cheryl, 9, Karen, 5, and Stacey, 3. He was born in Hamlin Jan. 25, 1936.

Neinda Philosopher Tells How to Read A Newspaper and Not Wind Up Getting Depressed

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One explores a new way to read newspapers and stay sane.

Dear editor:

Every once in a while, to get my mind off the trials and tribulations of the world, I start reading a newspaper backwards, starting with the last page and gradually working my way from right to left, postponing as long as I can what some people call the gloom of the front page.

It's surprising how much valuable news you can pick up this way.

For example, last night I read in a short article under a cake recipe that the U. S. Interior Department and Army scientists are urging the further study of an idea to bring fresh water to water-short areas of the country by towing icebergs from the Antarctic.

That's right. Icebergs, it said, consist of frozen fresh water, in fact 80 per cent of the world's fresh water is contained in the icebergs up there, so why not have tugs tow them to water-short areas in the United States?

That's all the article said, but it's enough, leaving a man's mind free of the depressing front page news while he meditates on the sight of a tug towing an iceberg to the Atlantic coast and

Bridge Winners

Winners of the Hamlin Duplicate Bridge Club were Mrs. Mable Lillius and Mrs. Jewel Butler both of Abilene. Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Sadler of Merkel tied with Mrs. Floyd Briscoe and Mrs. W. O. Wilbanks for second.

Tied for third were Mrs. Holly Toler and Harry Yates of Stamford and Floyd Briscoe and Mrs. Harvey Elkins. The next meeting will be 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

then somebody's hooking on to it with a tractor I suppose and driving like mad to get it to Arizona before it melts.

Somehow this reminds me of the man who spent years working on a better mouse trap and finally invented one and had already marked off where he wanted the path beaten to his door when some smart-alec invented rat poison. You can't get to his place now for the weeds.

And then there was the man who opened up a chain of livery stables just as automobiles were catching on. Busted, before welfare was started.

Nothing is said to be more powerful than an idea whose time has arrived, but next to it for some people is the idea whose time has expired.

David Ratliff On Ag Committee

Lt. Governor Ben Barnes today announced the appointment of three Senators to the Committee on Development of Agricultural Production Potential in Texas.

Barnes named Senators Bill Patman of Ganado; David Ratliff of Stamford; and J. P. Word of Meridian to the study group. The Lieutenant Governor designated Patman as chairman.

Created by S. R. 870, the Committee will study all means by which development of the Texas agricultural production potential for the next decade can be encouraged and realized.

"Texas ranks third in the U. S. in total cash income from agriculture and I think we can be first," said Barnes.

"This Committee will work to provide new ideas on how Texas can increase its cash income and insure the steady growth of agribusiness in Texas."

Try it sometime. Read a daily newspaper from back to front. It conditions the mind for the state of the world that day. Of course, this is hard to do with television news.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.
